

Media Studios North

Burbank, California

Property Overview

Media Studios North is a 915,000 square foot media and entertainment campus on 19 acres comprised of five office buildings, a state-of-the-art health club, two commissary facilities, and on-site covered parking. The office buildings were developed over the last 10 years and are fully leased to such tenants as GE Capital, Technicolor, Yahoo!, and Insomniac Games. The property was awarded in 2006 with BOMA International's Office TOBY Award as office building of the year in the suburban office park category.

Media Studios North is located in the Burbank Media District North submarket of Burbank, CA, which is home to five of the world's largest film and television studios, Warner Bros., Disney/ABC, Dreamworks SKG, NBC and Universal. The property boasts on-site amenities unique to the local market and is ideally located adjacent to the Bob Hope Airport and the Burbank Hilton Hotel & Conference Center.
